Religious week activities set

With Religious Emphasis Week only a matter of a few weeks away, January 11-15, preparations are now going into full swing, said Shirley Olson, general chairman, recently. The theme of REW is "What Can We Believe?" and will be carried out in the seminars, classroom discussions, assemblies, bull sessions in the dorms, and personal conferences. Book displays will also be available in both the Union building and the library.

Under the leadership of Dr. E. E. Samuelson, executive secretary; Shirley Olson, general chairman; and Idalee McManus, secretary-treasurer, student committees have been set up, each with a faculty advisor, to take care of specific details for each phase of REW. There are approximately 100 students now actively working on these committees.

Noted Speakers Here

Several well-known speakers will be heard in the assemblies. Among them will be Dr. Hal Gossard of Santa Fe, N. M., Dr. James Millar of Portland, Ore., Russell M. Jones of Newport, R. I., and John

Christmas concert by band, choir slated Monday night

The annual Christmas program of the Central music department will be presented next Monday at 8:15 p.m. in the College auditorium, according to Wayne S. Hertz, chairman of the department. Featured this year will be the Concert band under the direction of A. Bert Christianson, and the Central Singers, directed by Hertz. Each will present a 30 minute concert. The Concert band will play a variety of new publications for band, announced Christianson. The "Fantasy on American Sailing Songs" by Clare Grundman features folk songs which are well known to most people of the Northwest. Also included in the band's program will be the "French Quarter Suite" by Morrissey; the "Overture" to the Messiah by Handel, and several marches and lighter numbers.

"Oratorio" to be sung

Presented by the Central Singers will be the "Christmas Oratorio" by Saint-Saens. Accompaniment will be by organ and piano, played by Henry Eickhoff and Gay Harrington, respectively. Soloists for the "Oratorio" will be Jeanette Hall, soprano; Eileen Huckins, soprano; June Kosbab, mezzo; Marlene Long, alto; Frank Prather, tenor; Gordon Leavitt, tenor; Ted Turner, baritone; and Rex Holbrook, bass. There are 100 voices in the choir this year, according to Hertz, and all indications point to a good performance.

Snow ball is tonight

Tonight will see the gym transformed into a veritable winter wonderland, complete with starry silhouettes, a huge snowman and the traditional snowball overhead as the AWS presents its annual Snowball to the students of Central.

Art Hartsell's "Swing Kings" will furnish the music for the event, which will continue from 9 to 12 p.m. Corsages will be in order for this first tole of the school year and it has been announced that Dean Hitchcock has extended late leave to 1:30 so that the girls will be able to wine, dine and see their dates back to the dorms.

Refreshments for this gala affair are being planned by Doris Graffunder, while entertainment will be in the hands of Alene Key and Bonnie Day. Jerry Johnson and Jo Widness are in charge of decorations, Lillian Luther and Fannie Athos have planned the programs, while publicity was handled by Janet Christy and Mary Roberts.

Programs are on sale in the CUB for $1.25, and will be sold tonight at the door.

Annual Wassail party will be next Tuesday

The annual Christmas Wassail party, sponsored by the Central faculty, will be held next Tuesday from 3-5 p.m. in the CUB lounge, according to Miss Janet Lowe, chairman for the party.

Included in the festivities are caroling, led by Wayne S. Hertz; hot spiced punch, and even Santa Claus. All married students are urged by the committee to bring their children to the party to meet Santa.

Living group representation found illegal

Thompson finds that amendment failed to pass by two votes

Dick Alm

Investigation brought about by the CRIER's article last issue about the lack of legal Kennedy hall representative to the SGA council has revealed even more interesting information. Dean Thompson, SGA president, found, while checking through election returns, that the entire council, with the exception of the president, vice-president, secretary and CAMPUS CRIER editor, is not legally sanctioned by the Constitution.

It seems as though Amendment I to the SGA Constitution, supposedly passed on April 6, 1948, calling for the change-over from a council composed of the SGA officers and four members-at-large to the present system of living group representatives failed to pass by two votes. With an enrollment of 1,051 spring quarter of 1948, 701 votes were necessary to add the amendment to the Constitution, but only 699 affirmative votes were cast.

Amendments again published

Due to mistakes found in the proposed SGA Constitutional amendments since they were published in the CRIER two weeks ago, and due to changes found necessary through recent investigation, it is necessary, in order to abide by the Constitution, to publish them again. Voting on them will take place during the first week of winter quarter, according to Dean Thompson, SGA president.

The proposed amendments:

Article I

Amendment relating to the revision of Article II, Section 1 and 2 entitled, "Officers of the SGA and Membership of the Executive Board."

Section 1

The elective members of the Executive Board shall consist of a president, vice-president, and secretary elected from the student body at large, and one elective representative from the following residential groups: Munson hall, Kamola hall, Sue Lombard hall, Walnut Street dormitories (Alford hall, Carmody hall, Montgomery hall, Munro hall), Off-Campus men, Off-Campus women, Vetville (including all off-campus married students), North hall, and Kennedy hall.

Article II

(Amendment relating to Revision of Article VII, Section 1 (b); Section 2 (c) Section 2 (d) entitled: "The Honor System.")

Section 1

The college administration and faculty manifest their confidence in students by assisting them in every way possible in managing their own conduct, and the Student-Faculty Coordination and Planning Board will work with the Executive Board in planning student activities and with the Honor Council in carrying out the aims and purposes of the Honor System. This shall be interpreted to mean an encouragement of fine and wholesome relations between faculty and students through study of such problems as conduct of examinations, evaluation of students, class procedures and faculty social relationships and any other problems in which faculty and students are mutually concerned. Recommendations for consideration shall be

Legislation made legal

All legislation passed by the "illegal" councils since that date was made legal at the last SGA council meeting by a vote of the three official council members. An amendment, found elsewhere in this issue, which is to be voted on by the Central student body at the beginning of winter quarter will again attempt to make living group representation a part of the SGA Constitution.

Also found by Thompson in his research through the SGA files was another attempt to get Kennedy represented on the council. The CRIER failed to mention this new-found attempt in its article last week, so we will explain it now, at the SGA council's request.

On Feb. 22, 1949, the students of Central again voted on an initiative trying to legalize Kennedy's representative. The vote at that time was 685 for and 46 against, but with an enrollment of 1385 the two-thirds approval requirement was again not met.

Four Centralites travel to WSC for meetings

Four Central Washington college student leaders will attend the National Student Association regional meeting at Washington State college today and tomorrow.

Dean Thompson, SGA president, will attend the discussion sessions for student body presidents; Gordon Irle, Hyakem editor, those for yearbook editors; Dick Alm, CRIER editor, those for newspaper editors, and Sam Long, CRIER business manager, those for newspaper business managers.

Central is not a member of the NSA, but the meetings, although sponsored by that organization, are open to all colleges.

Want to fight Communism? give to 'Crusade for Freedom'

Broad support of the Crusade for Freedom by organizations and individuals throughout the state was urged recently by Reno Odlin, Washington Chairman of the 1952 campaign, just under way.

The Crusade, now in its third year, is a citizen-supported movement carrying on a hard-hitting psychological warfare against Communism in Europe and Asia.

"This is one way in which every American can help truth fight Communism," said Odlin. "And I believe this may be one of our strongest weapons for peace in helping avert a third world war."

"The growth and effectiveness of our 'freedom stations' has been phenomenal," Odlin declared. In two years, thanks to the support of 25,000,000 Americans, Radio Free Europe has grown from a single low-powered transmitter to a 13-station network broadcasting 1,000 hours a week in 7 languages. And Radio Free Asia, he said, our newest weapon in the war against Communism lies in the Pacific area, reaches Stalin's captive peoples from four transmitters in Manila and Guam—in three languages besides English.

Schools throughout the state again are participating in the Crusade for Freedom. By so doing, said Odlin, they are making for "better informed American youth and for liberation of Red-enslaved children abroad." He termed it "vitally important for young people as well as their elders to understand and join the Crusade."

What is REW?

REW stands for Religious Emphasis Week. This week is being held on Central's campus for the first time, and will include the week of January 11-15.

We now have the words Religious Emphasis Week, but what is the purpose of such a week?

There are many people who will boast of the numerous advantages and facilities such as new buildings, top notch instructors and democratic student government that we have here at Central. But, for a well rounded education there has been one aspect lacking in most non-sectarian colleges.

Religious Emphasis Week is a method of adding this balancing aspect of religion to our education. Through such a week our knowledge of the true meaning of religion in our lives can be awakened and we can become of greater service to our fellow man, our college, our church, our nation, and our God.

The basic objectives of the week may be outlined as follows:

(1) to promote wide-spread discussion of religion on the campus; (2) to present the fundamentals of religion vividly; (3) to encourage students to regard religion as a practical way to abundant living; (4) and to develop permanent interest in the ongoing religious activities of the campus and community.

Religious Emphasis Week is an open challenge for us to get an inside view on one of our basic freedoms—Freedom of religion. May we take the freedom to meet this challenge!

Christmas means;

Holiday and Holy Day, Christmas is more than a yule log, holly or tree. It is more than natural good cheer and the giving of gifts. Christmas is even more than the feast of the home and of children, the feast of love and friendship. It is more than all of these together.

Christmas is a time of reunion among families and old friends. The reason for this is more than a matter of tradition or custom; it is that no one is able—an no one wants to try—to contain and keep within himself the boundless job of Christmas.

Christmas is a time, indeed, when it seems that all men's best instincts and their most generous impulses come forth and, at least for a little while, submerge and supplant the bitterness, the selfishness and the hatreds that poison the world.

The joy of Christmas is a joy that war cannot kill, for it is a joy of the heart and the heart does not die. Poverty cannot prevent the joy of Christmas, for it is a joy no earthly wealth can give. Time cannot wither Christmas, for it belongs to eternity.

The thought will come to all of us that the extension of the Christmas spirit into the rest of the year would surely bring about a reunion among mankind comparable to the reunion of families that it inspires. The leaders and peoples of nations must understand this fundamental truth if we are ever to have freedom and peace. No other means will bring to an end the strife that turns nation against nation and makes men live in the fear they have themselves created by their forgetfulness of the Babe of Bethlehem.

Not until men lay aside greed, hatred, pride and the tyranny of evil passions will the star of Christmas peace illuminate the world.

Dear editor:

Dear Editor:

We wish to publicly apologize to all of the House Council members who assembled for the meeting with Honor Council on Monday, November 24, which was cancelled. An attempt was made to notify all people concerned that this meeting was called off, but, apparently everyone was not notified.

We hope to re-schedule the meeting for winter quarter and hope you will all be there.

Again let us apologize for our failure to notify you of the cancellation of the meeting.

Sincerely,

The Honor Council.

A house for Hans

You students who were here two years ago no doubt remember Hans Hampel, a German exchange student, sitting in the Inn solving the world's problems over a cup of coffee, trying to learn the American way of life so he could take a portion of it back to his people in Germany. When he left Central to become a teacher in his homeland, he became a sort of ambassador of good will from our country to his.

Recently the college received a letter from his mother telling of the desperate circumstance the Hampel family is now in. To quote the letter, "... through the unfortunate decision at Postdam, we were expelled from our homeland where we left behind a beautiful farm ... We came into Bavaria where no one wanted to take us in ... In an attic of a house we have lived for six years with no chance of getting another dwelling place, for there are so many homeless here ... we acquired a small piece of land, but the means of building is lacking for us."

"I believe firmly that each one in the College would make a few cents donation," went on Mrs. Hampel. "In the love of Christian charity, please try. God will bless you and all the House of Ellensburg for it. Our house shall call it blessed and shall make known to all the world that the good people over land and sea took pity on us."

During the week of December 8-12, the Newman club will conduct a drive to raise funds for Hans' family. As a symbol that they have shared a bit of their wealth during this Christmas season with the Hampel family, each donor will receive a chenille candy cane to wear on his lapel.

Watch for notification as to when and where the drive will be held, and remember that each of us has much more than do the Hampels.

Smudge Pottee

By Scotty

While getting in a leetle pre-season practice with my champion second grade soccer team the other day, I was wondering just how long this spell of good weather was going to last. But today I got my answer when I saw some of Sweezy's energetic, vitality-stuffed Frosh gamboling in "all that purty white stuff—". One raven-haired beaut was getting the "down the neck" treatment from Sir Durwood of the Kennewick Durwood's, and there were some of the upperclassmen feebly led by "Beeg" Marsh Keating pushing snow-balls at another squealing little gal.

May I call your attention to the feature article on REW, which will be held here the week of January 11 to 15. The theme of "What Can We Believe" will incorporate discussions by students and faculty, and also four noted speakers on the subject of religion. One of the main objectives is to promote discussion of religion on campus, along with presenting the fundamentals of religion, and to develop permanent interest in the ongoing religious activities of the campus and community.

Although not scheduled on the social calendar, the film this Friday evening will be "Pinky" with Jeanne Craine. Any of you who have seen it will agree that it hits the timely subject of racial prejudice rather hard. Miss Craine's acting is of a much worthier caliber than some of her usual roles of blushing "sweet, young things...." She plays the role of a Negro who is faced with forgetting (Continued on Page 6)

January 11-15 brings something new to the Central campus. This has been the week designated by the steering committee as Religious Emphasis Week. At first glance most of us would think this is a program sponsored by a denominational group. We would probably forget about it, subconsciously thinking it had special group interest. However, this is not the case. REW has come about through the combined efforts of college students who have laid aside these denominational influences and have put together a program to appeal to any college student.

A college campus gives the widest cross section of religious beliefs that could possibly be studied. Their opinions run the gamut from the deeply devout to the agnostic. As college students we are supposed to be the more thinking element of our country. To those who do think, religion cannot be ignored or passed over lightly without recognizing that it is one of the greatest moving forces in our world. Even those who disbelieve recognize its power and the value of its teachings. Religious Emphasis Week gives us a good chance to do thinking along these lines. It gives a program geared to the average college student. It attempts to convert no one, but to give our student body a closer understanding and realization of religion.

The committee on our campus has laid elaborate plans during the past six months. Outstanding speakers for classroom, living group and organizational discussions have been scheduled. This is not an entreaty to support REW through a sense of duty or obligation. We hope we can get a large participation because of the realization that we can personally gain something from this week. Be a little selfish, there's a lot in it for you.

A poem

Moe Dustin

All the verses around,
Are so old and trite,
That for students of Central,
A new poem I'll write!

First—I dedicate my poem
To dear old Scotty,
For the plug I got,
In last week's "Pottee!"

Come the twelfth of December,
Vacation will start,
We'll all pack our bags,
And for home will depart!

Christmas shopping comes first,
And that's lots of fun,
We'll buy many presents,
And spend all our mon!

We'll see our old friends,
And with them go out,
We'll have such a time,
T'will be reason to shout!

Many parties we'll hold,
With the absence of beer,
For the students of Central,
It's fifths of good cheer!

In the mail come our grades,
It's straight "A's" for all,
Once again the professors,
Are right on the ball!

The new year will come,
And what a surprise,
There won't be a headache,
Or even red eyes!

We'll return to dear Central,
With memories galore,
Settle down for the quarter,
And classes once more!

My poem is now done,
I'm quite out of verse,
If I write any more,
It's gonna get worse!

But I didn't stop,
As you can well see,
For I know a genius,
Is inhabited in me!

My downfall will come,
When this poem is read,
For now you all know—
I've a hole in my head!

Eickhoff recital Sunday afternoon

Henry J. Eickhoff, assistant professor of music at Central will present an organ recital on Sunday afternoon, December 7, at 4 o'clock in the College auditorium.

Sunday's program will include standard works of the organ repertoire from the period of Bach to the present time. Contemporary music will be represented in two French compositions and one American work. Several numbers to be heard are particularly appropriate for the Christmas season.

The complete program is as follows: Fugue in E flat major, Bach; Three Chorale Preludes, Brahms; "Baroques"—Suite for organ, Bingham; Litanies, Alain; Song of Peace, Langlais; Noel X, Daquin; Christmas Chorale, Pachelbel; Toccata in F major, Bach.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER!

They're made better to taste cleaner, fresher, smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know, yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Because Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

So, for the thing you want most in a cigarette... for better taste—cleaner, fresher, smoother taste... Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

Central loses to Seattle U 90-43 as Ken Teller sits on sidelines

A power laden, Johnnie O'Brien paced Seattle University Chieftains caught a green and Ken Teller minus. Central team on the Seattle floor and drubbed the Wildcats 90-43 Tuesday evening.

It was the opening contest for both schools. Johnnie O made 10 out of 13 field goal attempts and added eight free throws for a 28 point night. Johnnie O was well placed in the All-American standings last season after he set the new national scoring mark at 1051 points.

Guard Don Heacox received much praise from the Central coaches Leo Nicholson and Arne Faust for his team leadership and ball handling. Sophomore Bob Dunn, who was the leading scorer on last year's Jayvees, led the Wildcat scoring with nine points. Fourteen Cats entered the scoring column.

The Wildcats matched goals with the Chieftains for the first quarter with the score only 20-13 at that time, but the Chiefs began to score on their fast break, and the half time count was 40-23. From there on in the Chiefs ran up their total.

The last shimmering rays of the football season hit the Central Washington football team this week with the announcement of the Evergreen All-Conference team.

The Wildcats placed four members of their squad on the all-star team. They are: Bob Hibbard, named center on the first team; Bill Repenshek, second team guard; Dave Mathewson and Don Rundle placed on the honorable mention team.

Hibbard's consistent defensive play earned him a spot on the first team. Many regard Bob's best game as the College of Puget Sound tussel. Besides being named to the all-Conference team, Hibbard was named to the little all-coast second team as center.

Hustling Bill Repenshek also made the grade on his defensive ability. A number of Central's fans have been remarking that if Bill would have not been out a majority of the games with injuries hwe would have been on the first team with Hibbard. He still has the old dye 'n the wool fans talking about the jarring tackle he made in the game with Fort Lewis.

The offensive play of Mathewson and Rundle was the factor in their getting honorable mention. Mathewson, who was voted the outstanding frosh player on the Wildcat squad by his teammates, was consistent in racking up yardage. Rundle and his driving line smashes were known throughout the league. Rundle was the workhorse of the squad. Whenever a couple of yards were needed he was sent up the middle.

AF ROTC rifle team downs local club by 1 point

Team captain Robert Heikell posted the high score of 367 to lead the AF ROTC rifle team to a 1759-1758 win over the Valley Rifle club at the club's range on Thursday, November 13.

Scores for the Cadets were John McCament 354, Robert Stowell 351 and Baron Pierce 322. The match was a "shoulder to shoulder" contest.

For the Valley Rifle Club H. Mathews shot 357, C. Chartrand 352, W. Vickerman 350, R. Chartrand 350 and M. Gordon 349.

Other cadets that are rated well with Coach M/Sgt. R. F. Windham are Bill Wilson, Bob Zeller, Al Kelly, Aris Frederick, Walt Panschyshyn, Dave French, Gerald Brummond, Ron Tasso, Gene Titzel, Harold Westlan and John Hood. Competition is keen as the members compete for a place on the squad which will play all inter collegiate schedule.

The aim of the radio stations of Rad'io Free Europe and Radio Free Asia, supported by the Crusade for Freedom, is not to defend America against Communist propaganda, but to carry on a continuing attack and force the Communists to go on the defensive. By discrediting Communism, its influence is undermined and a rift is created and widened between the people and their Soviet rulers.

Perhaps may be, "It might have been."

Foreign study grants offered

Several scholarships for travel and study in Europe and Mexico will be awarded in 1953 by the Students' International Travel Association (SITA), according to word received recently from Prof. Richard F. Wilkie of Seattle, SITA Northwest Counselor. Awards will be made to students of college level on the basis of their scholarship record, home community work, and general achievement. Scholarships are limited to those who have not traveled outside of the United States or Canada.

In addition, grants-in-aid ranging from $100 to $300 will be available to students in the top 10 per cent of their class who have leadership ability and interests as well as foreign travel experience, and to male students capable of specific work assistance during the course of any tour (bicycle repair, driving, baggage, etc.).

Besides bicycle and motor tours of Europe, SITA sponsors language, art, and music study trips and a complete Mexico tour program. Further information may be had by writing to Prof. Wilkie, 5744-34th Ave. N.E., Seattle 5, or directly to SITA-Adventure Trails, 545 Fifth Ave., New York 17, N.Y.

Gladiators here tomorrow

Central Washington College opens its 1952-53 home basketball season tomorrow night on the Ellensburg Morgan gym floor against the Gladiators of Pacific Lutheran with game time at 8 o'clock.

Last year the Lutes were the runner-ups for the conference crown and helped represent the Evergreen conference in the NAIB play-offs at Spokane. They have much the same team this year.

The Wildcats' 66-46 victory over the Gladiators was one of the highlights of the 1952 season. The half time score was 33-8 in favor of Central, as Coach Leo Nicholson's tight zone defense held the Lutes in check. PLC came back in Tacoma and waxed the Cats 73-59.

With ten lettermen back for this year's team, the Cats should have plenty of experience. Bill Jurgens, a former Central cager, is back with the team after a stretch in the service. Jurgens is 6 ft. 4 in. tall. Bob Dunn, another 6 ft. 4 in. player, is up from the Jayvees and will add a lot of height to the starting five.

Nick's cagers without rest on holidays

Coach Leo Nicholson's cagers take on a full "vacation" schedule this month and early January with eight non-conference games on tap between scholastic quarters.

The Cats open their Christmas stand against a strong Pacific Lutheran squad on December 15 at Parkland. Last year Central split its two games with the Lutes. The first game score was 66-46 in favor of the Wildcats; it was 33-8 at half time. PLC took the second contest 73-59.

The following night they tackle the Seattle Pacific Falcons in Seattle. Central defeated the Falcons 66-60 last year. December 17 finds the Cats against Puget Sound. The Loggers fell 60-39 and 59-57 last season. CPS is minus the services of All-Evergreen guard Jake Mayberry this year.

On Thursday, Dec. 18 the Wildcats play St. Martins at Olympia before going home for the week, and Christmas. Central took the Saints 79-63 and 67-47.

Sweezy girls at volleyball

Two teams of volleyball players from Central made a trip to Cheney on November 22, where the "W" club of Eastern Washington College conducted a Sports Day. The girls made the trip by cars, accompanied by Dolly Garrison, Zina Mae Evans, Ann Lembesis, and Peggy Gazette.

The girls that represented Central were: Team 1: Pat Thomson, Nancy Hardy, Virginia Larson, Mary De Santis, Jo Widness, Janice Koken, Joan Forest, Pat Hart and Lydia Rodriguez. Team 2: Laverne Roberts, Ann Vowles, Marion Lipsky, Betty Irons, Nancy Richert and Margaret King, Marcia Laughon, Barbara Peterson.

Team 1 from Central played Whitworth college in their first game and defeated Whitworth 43-35. They then met Eastern college who handed the Sweezy gals a 31-27 defeat. Central's team 2 met another Eastern team in their first round of play and lost to them 29-21.

The outcome of the tournament found Eastern to be the winner. The colleges represented were Eastern, Wash. State, Central Wash., Whitworth, and University of Idaho.

Costume ball to be given by drama honorary

Settling

TAKE HEED!! Students of Central, next quarter on a blistering cold Friday evening, one of the most unusual, bizarre, bon-vivant dances of the year will be given. One, I'm sure, that you'll be thinking of a long, long time.

Masks and Jesters, not satisfied with hamming up the theatrical world, has decided to spread their talent among the dancing world also by sponsoring one of the first masquerade balls to be given here in my recollection.

This is the first in a series of psychic messages designed to install in you a FEAR, abnormal and otherwise, concerning this forthcoming dance. During the weeks preceding January 23 many strange apparitions will be seen roaming around campus urging (heh heh heh) you people to purchase tickets. But hold fast to your sanity and bear this in mind:

1. This masquerade ball will be costume only. (So, why not start looking around for something to wear this Christmas vacation?)
2. Music will be engineered by one of the popular combos on campus—not decided as yet.
3. Date is Friday evening, January 23 from 9 to 12 p. m. in the men's gym.
4. And as a parting shot, the co-chairmen are Frances "Sner" Xner and Floyd "Gabby" Gabriel—that ought to give you a ghoulish hint of the general theme—as Mr. Hertz would say, "craaaaaazy, Dad . . .") scheduling major competition this year and will have played several "name" teams before taking on Central.

After a short lay-off (long enough to get back to Ellensburg) Central plays two games with Willamette University. The Jan. 2 contest is scheduled for Wapato and the following night's game is at Ellensburg.

The 1952 Wildcats compiled a 17 won 11 lost record, including two NAIB district play-off losses. They scored 1677 points for a 59.9 average and allowed 1591 for a 56.8 defense. Billy Lee and Ken Teller were named to the All-conference five.

The Communist overlords of the Iron Curtain countries fear the broadcasts of Radio Free Europe and Radio Free Asia for they fear the truth above all things. The oppressed people of these countries, however, look to these stations, which are supported by the American people through the Crusade for Freedom, for the truth and hope they so desperately need.

They say that money talks, but these days the dollar doesn't have enough cents to say much of anything worthwhile.

"I always smoked Chesterfields in college just like my friends" says New York secretary, Elizabeth Lydon, "and here in New York it seems like almost everyone smokes them."

IN SUPPORT OF SMOKING

A responsible consulting organization reports a study by a competent medical specialist and staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfields. For six months a group of men and women smoked only Chesterfield—10 to 40 a day—their normal amount. 45 percent of the group have smoked Chesterfields from one to thirty years for an average of ten years each.

At the beginning and end of the six-months, each smoker was given a thorough examination including X-rays, and covering the sinuses, nose, ears and throat. After these examinations, the medical specialist stated . . .

"It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
